

FAIR HOUSING IS THE LAW.

YOUR RIGHTS, OUR MISSION.

INDIANA CIVIL RIGHTS COMMISSION (ICRC)

WHAT IS FAIR HOUSING?

Indiana residents cannot be discriminated against on the basis of race, religion, color, sex, disability, familial status (having children under 18), or national origin in the purchase or rental of housing.

Based on any of these protected characteristics, housing providers may NOT:

- Refuse to rent or sell housing
- Falsely deny that housing is available for inspection, rental, or sale
- Refuse to make a mortgage loan
- Impose different conditions or terms on a loan
- Threaten, coerce, or intimidate any individual exercising a fair housing right
- Refuse reasonable changes to a dwelling to accommodate a disability

Call, write, or visit ICRC online or in person within 1 year of the date in which the alleged act of discrimination occurred and describe the situation you feel was discriminatory.

EQUAL HOUSING OPPORTUNITY

ICRC works cooperatively with its federal partner, the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development ("HUD"), to investigate complaints and raise awareness about fair housing rights.
